

Reconciliation Course

Lesson 2: What Reconciliation Counseling Is Not

A place for either parent to disparage the other parent to the child

A place for the estranged parent to denigrate the child

A place for the estranged
parent to bring extended family

to visit the child,
unless specifically asked to do so

A young girl with long dark hair in a ponytail, wearing a white t-shirt, is hugging a large white teddy bear. She is smiling slightly. In the background, several other children in white shirts and blue pants are sitting on the floor in a classroom or school setting. The image has a soft, warm, and slightly faded aesthetic.

A place to pressure the child to forgive quickly and "return to normal"
