

Love and Be Loved

Coparenting Principle 5

Children of divorce are caught in a loyalty conflict.

You can't change your child's biological parent.

It damages a child to make them believe it's not okay to love one of their parents.

Encourage your child to love and
celebrate their relationship with your Coparent.

ALLOW PICTURES OF YOUR COPARENT IN YOUR CHILD'S BEDROOM AT YOUR HOUSE.

Mention fun experiences you've shared with your Coparent when the children were younger.

Demonstrate your mutual support of your child's activities by your behavior at events.

Show your child
you support and celebrate the relationship they have with both
parents.
